A LETTER TO MY HOMELAND, IGUODODO

SEPTEMBER 15, 2021.

Reference #: UJ01P

Dearest Odionwere, Edion, my fathers and mothers, my fellow elders, Ighele, Irhoghae, my sons and daughters of this sweet homeland, the youths of this land's tomorrow, our most reputable neighbors to the north, south, west and east, and my fellow brothers and sisters, sojourning across the hemispheres, Please, permit me to stand tall and proud, to say that I represent Iguododo-Nuwa Development Alliance (IDA hereafter), an organization perfectly designed by our God, Udazi nobo, then entrusted the same to the capable hands of your sons and daughters, across the continents of the world.

My fellow Iguododoans, my name is DR. Johnny Uhummwuango, your very own son, a grandson of Late PA. Isokpan (Former Odiowere), and a true son of Late Mrs. Dora Ekhueorohan Arhuagbon (Nee Dora Ekhuerohan Isokpan), and I am the president of Iguododo-Nuwa Development Alliance, IDA.

To the Odiowere, Edion, and my older elders: Wa LAGIEWAN, LAGIEWAN.

To my brothers and sisters, home and abroad: Wa be vbeneghe khare.

To our invited guests and others: I honor you, with a bow, on behalf of IDA members.

From all IDA members: Wa lagiewan, Lagiesan, Latose, Lakun, Labo, Lavbieze, Laidu, Wa obevbeneghe khare.

Here, my team members have asked me to thank you, for joining to celebrate, and usher this great occasion, marking our token contributions, to this beautiful land. While the best is yet to come, we are very delighted, zealous, committed, and proud, to be your sons and daughters. WA RHUESE KAKABO.

Precisely, Iguododo-Nuwa Development Alliance was founded in November 2020, even the infamous, deadly Coronavirus (COVID-19), couldn't dare to STOP us. While IDA started small, today, it is growing like a wildfire. IDA was established to support the works and efforts of our present-day leaders of our homeland, Iguododo, and to further propel the visions of our ancestors, ENIKARO, so Iguododo can remain, as before, the best star of the many surrounding stars, in the firmament.

So far, our token projects: Water Boreholes, School Classroom refurbishments, School Books' Supplies, School Gate's installation, School Generator's modifications/repairs, and School Goal Posts. While the Town's Hospital/Clinic projects are being worked on, believe me, many other projects are in the works, as you are seated. Proudly, courtesy of IDA, Iguododo now has a WEBSITE: WWW.iguododo.com. GO AND CHECK IT OUT!!!!!!!!!!!! And the best is yet to come, via IDA, to this land of our home, Iguododo.

Respecting all members of IDA, with absolute loyalty, but for the works of these executives, without them, so far, our missions would have been impossible. Thanking each of them and their family members, respectively, my personal loyalty goes to:

1. Mr. Mathew Omoruyi, Vice President.
2. Mr. Edwin Osawaru Igbinosun, Secretary General.
3. Mr. Wilfred Osewmezie, Speaker of the House.
4. Mrs. Magdalene Osaghae Edomwonyi-Oduwa, Treasurer.
5. Mrs. Mary Orobosa-Olufowobi, Deputy Treasurer.
6. Mr. Clement Ogiesoba Igbinosun, Financial Secretary.
7. Mr. Peter Imalenowa (KUKUYE), Public Relations Officer.
8. Pa. Benson Ibizugbe (Kokobi), Homeland Representative.
9. Pastor Julius Isibor, Welfare Officer.

To the above listed, capable executives, all members inclusive, without further due, so you know, without you, my leadership would have been fussy, and our joint missions would have been impossible. Without a shadow of doubt, I would always remain your humble, grateful, relentless servant leader; I thank and beg of you, for your continuous, philanthropic supports. I couldn't have asked for anything more, from you.

To my elders, as your sons and daughters, we do not claim to know it all, as we are relying on your prayers and God's blessings. If/when we err, consult with us, and we will consult and listen to you. As we are committed, with hard work, comradery and/or team play, equity, fairness, and patriotism (love for father land), our successes are assured.

To my sons and daughters of Iguododo, or "THE YOUTHS and PUPILS," these are my messages to/for you:

1. Be steadfast in your doings; stay out of troubles,
2. Honor your fathers, honor mothers, honor your instructors,
3. Love and protect your father land or be patriotic, always,
4. As you are the future of our homeland's tomorrow, be prepared to accept all reasonable responsibilities; traditional, professional, and legal batons, or challenges, life has to offer, so Iguododo can be and would be entrusted to your care, for future progresses or growth, in your time,
5. Remain leaders, not laggards,
6. Know that education has always been the bed rock of life; very paramount today and into the future; your future hinges on it,
7. Note and accept that, today and always, hard work alone, is the magic key to successes. No short cuts,

8. Do not allow any infrastructures or amenities provided, for this land, be in disrepair; be the custodians, be the controllers,
9. As we are proud of you, please, dream high, excel in all your endeavors; continue to make us proud of you, too, and,
10. Please, believe that prayer is the key, and, as you pray for yourselves, pray for our Homeland, Iguododo.

To our invited guests of the Ministry of Education, I thank you, for taking time out of your busy schedules, to usher this event, with us. Most importantly, IDA members need you, Iguododo needs you, and our children need you. As you travel to your various destinations, with journey mercies, the one thing I would like you to take home: "Think about what you can do to make the life of an Iguododo's child, much the best." Take this message to Mrs. Joan Oviawe, to Whom I have nicknamed "THE EDUCATION BOSS:" please, "HELP UPLIFT AN IGUODODO'S CHILD." There is much to be done: please, provide our children, the much-needed resources, for educational development, as "A MIND IS A TERRIBLE THING TO WASTE."

To our able Iguododo Headmasters and Teachers, Idunmwebo Headmasters and Teachers, and Oheze's Headmasters and Teachers, I thank you, for your wonderful job. Please, your positions may be tasking, it can be very rewarding, too. May you be rewarded by God, Udazi nobo, according to your works. I implore you not to be tired, as God is your cover, pilar, strength and grace. Amen!

Finally, thanking our Odiowere, Edion, my fellow elders, my brothers and sister, and especially our mothers, on behalf of my IDA team members, I ask for your prayers, as we are planning more projects, for the betterment of our homeland, Iguododo. Also, join me to thank all IDA members, especially the following members, for the generous donations, as God has rewarded them, insurmountably:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Mr. Paul Osaghae. | 6. Mrs. Edith Alohan |
| 2. Mr. Friday Ehigie. | 7. Pastor Agbolahor Iserhienrhien |
| 3. MS. Emily Osa. Omosigho. | 8. Mr. Jeff Uhunmwuango |
| 4. Mr. Jackson Iyalekhue. | 9. Mrs. Vivian Chi-Mbatoh |
| 5. Mr. Jacob Iyamu. | 10. Mr. Osaro Iserhienrhien |

Importantly, without these team and project leaders' finesses: Mr. Peter Imalenowa, Mr. Edwin Igbinosun, MR. Mathew Omoruyi, Mrs. Magdalene Edomwonyi-Oduwa, Mrs. Mary Orobosa-Olufowobi, Pa. Benson Kokobi Ibizugbe, Clement Igbinosun, these Projects and Events, would not have come to fruition. We are proud sons and daughters of Our sweet Homeland, Iguododo.

GOD BLESS US ALL, GOD BLESS OUR HOMELAND, IGUODODO.

Yours truly,

Dr. Johnny Uhunmwuango, JD. (U. Johnny)

(President, IDA)
